SHOCKING CUN ACCIDENT.

Little Sidney Jackson Shot and Instantly Killed at West Weber, Saturday.

Fatality Due to Careless Handling of Firearms-Rural Mail Carriers

A sad and fatal shooting affray oc curred Saturday afternoon about 1:50 o'clock at West Weber, Weber county, as a result of carelessness, and on account of the same two families ar bowed down in deep sorrow, and Sidney Jackson, the little 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jackson, is lying cold in the arms of death.

The particulars of the accident as near as can be learned are, that during Saturday a son of Henry Reed about 14 years of age, the next door neighbor to the Jackson family, went duck hunting, and returned home shortly after I o'clock with some game. He stood his loaded gun in a room with the trigger up ready to shoot, he then went out into the lot near the use to help a young man fix a plow. While so employed the little Jackson boy and Bowman Reed, the 5-year-olson of Henry Reed, came into the lot playing. The two little fellows ran to the house and the Reed boy picked up the gun, saying they would go and shoot birds, and raising the gun, it is supposed to have exploded, the full load taking effect in the Jackson boy's breast directly over the heart, tearing terrible wound in the boy's breast, plercing his heart, it went almost straight through his little body. The force of the shot turned the boy al-most completely around, and he fell to the ground dead. Murray Jacobs, who was only a few rods away, was soon at the dead boy's side and with the aid of neighbors the little lifeless body was is heartrending, as only about 15 min-utes before the accident she had permitted her little son to go to the Reed ome to play. The little Reed boy is not old enough to realize to any great extent what he has done, but the boy's parents are censured for carelessly permitting their children to have such dangerous weap-

SERIOUS LOSS BY FIRE. Barn, Stable and Hay of Andrew Hansen Destroyed.

Special Correspondence. Fairview, Sanpete Co., Nov. 9 .- Last evening Andrew Hansen suffered a severe loss by fire. A little boy, perhaps between four and five years old, secured a match and went down to the barn to start a fire, which resulted in the entire destruction of his father's barn, stable, corral, 20 tons of hay, and other fodder for winter use. This falls pretty hard on Brother Hansen, as nothing was insured, and he has a pretty large family and in straight circumstances. But as this has been pretty good year, and the farmers have been blessed with an abundance have been blessed with an abundance of hay, it is expected that those who have been blessed with plenty will be willing to sacrifice a little of their abundance to help the unfortunate.

At this point the Cascot tunnel is being entered, which is des-tined to drain the waters from the mines in Bingham canyon. The town has come up like a mushroom, a new schoolhouse has been built midway be-tween here and the Dalton and Lark mine, in which a district school is run-ning. A Miss Newman from Riverton is teaching the young ideas how to shoot. Sunday school has been organized, and a ward was expected to be established last night, but for the existence of a case of smallpox, which had developed. The deputy sheriff and health officers came over from Bing-ham yesterday and placed the camp ham yesterday and placed the camp under strict quarantine. No person will be allowed to come or go from the town until the quarantine is lifted. The people here and elsewhere feel that there has been too much careless ness on the part of some American Fork citizens moving about who have been sick of the malady. The health officers in the afflicted districts have not shown proper vigilance.

SHAVED THACKERAY'S BUST.

The bust of Thackeray in Westmin-ster Abbey had several years ago upon its cheeks those pendant whiskers that are called "weepers," from their re-semblance to the foliage of the willow. Today the wiskers are no longer there. Their destruction was due to William H. Lambert of Philadelphia, the greatest collector of Thackerayana in this country, who has many portraits in oil, and many in ink, pencil and wash sketches of Thackeray, and hence should know how the novelist looked at every stage of his life.

Mr. Lambert is sure that Thackeray never wore "weepers," and therefore he volunteered not long since to stand he expense of the removal of the obectionable whiskers from the other-vis accurate and spirited Marochetti bust. Mrs. Thackeray Ritchie arranged the matter; the bust was taken for a brief space out of Westminster, and the whiskers were trimmed down to the proper length. Mr. Lambert was per-mitted to have a replica made of the Westminster bust, and it now stands on of the landings of the stairway of his house in Germantown.-St. Paul
